Gender Play is a solo show that explores Shakespeare’s canon through a gender-imaginative lens. In a mystical Space Between, a genderqueer actor called Will summons a playwright of the same name for a seance between performer and audience that invites a collective engagement with the Bard’s works. Together, they illuminate the queer roots of some of his most iconic characters. What begins as an investigation of the past builds to a celebration of present and future possibilities.

Co-Created by Will Wilhelm & Erin Murray
Performed by Will Wilhelm
Directed by Erin Murray

JAN 21, 2022 @ 3PM & 7PM

JOSEPHINE LOUIS THEATER