

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF INSTRUCTION
MEDIA PRODUCTION
(Non-tenure Eligible)

The Department of Radio/Television/Film is seeking a full-time instructor at the rank of Assistant Professor of Instruction (non-tenure eligible) focused on screen acting, with significant experience both in front of and behind the camera. Expertise in acting for film and television is essential, with any experience in film/TV casting, or acting for other media, such as gaming, motion capture, or voiceover a distinct plus. The candidate must also have sufficient technical experience/knowledge of filmmaking to teach an introductory-level production class and courses focused on screen acting in which polished short films or online content are final projects. Candidates should have a record of professional practice and/or creative activity, a terminal degree (MFA or PhD), and prior teaching experience. We may consider candidates without a terminal graduate degree if such candidates have extraordinary professional accomplishments.
